Upon the recommendation of the pre siding judge and the attorney for the Commonwealth in King George Coun-Commonwealth in King George County, will probably rest the fate of lier-bert Payton, the negro sentenced to die in the electric chair To-morrow. A final appeal in behalf of Peyton was made to Governor Mann yesterslay morning by Attorney Carter, who presented sundry petitions.

cials asking for their opinion in the matter. Upon their recommendation he will act to-day.

One of the petitions is from the coroner and four members of his jury, urging commutation of the sentence to life imprisonment, on the ground that the nature of the crime is insufficient to warrant a death sentence.

The killing occurred on July 4 of this year. It seems a lot of n groes, numbering about a dozen, assembled and that there was much quarreling and fighting. As a result of the affair, some prosecutions have arisen for selling ilquor illicity and for other offenses. There seems to have been a sort of general riot, and under the circumstances the evidence is held to be unreliable and uncertain, as to the exact manner in which Peyton's victim met his death.

BRIGGS INDICTED

Specific accusations were made by the government in the "dynamite conspiracy" trial to-day that in the spring of 1910 Frank M. Ryan, president of the Iron Workers' Union, and members of the union's executive board entered on a campaign systematically to blow up the property of certain iron and steel contractors, and that in furtherance of the plan President Ryan wrote from New York a letter assigning men to have charge of the explosions in different localities.

Twenty-five explosions that year, including those at Los Angeles, were alleged by the government to have been carried on with the knowledge of most of the executive officials of the international Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

District Attorney Charles W. Miller read a letter dated April 19, 1919, in which Ryan was purported to have directed J. J. McNamara to instructurion officials at Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Rochester, New York, Worcester, Mans.; Jersey City, N. J.: Detroit, Cincinnati, Peorla, Ill.; Davenport, Iowa, and Mount Vernon, Ill., to take care of the plan of the House of Deleview of the property to Be Tried.
